

work stream: ally perspective

(virtual: Sebastian Plitzner, VIG)

- support for community in own entity
- role model to others (straights)
- straight allies usually don't care about being mistaken for part of the community
- role of allies and allyship needs a framework and definition
- allyship courses
- alignment between allyship & LGBTIQ+ community
- allies as a first contact point

3 main findings:

1. alignment between allyship & LGBTIQ+ community
2. role of allies and allyship needs a framework and definition
3. role model to others (straights)

work stream: ally perspective

(on location: Wittich Mahlknecht, Wiener Städtische Versicherung AG)

Ally within the community

- more solidarity

Sexual Orientation shouldn't matter in an Ally

- we accept help from anybody

Motivation for being/becoming a straight Ally

- LGBTIQ+ relatives
- Idealism
- economic advantages